Y. M. C. 5 Mile Marathon Big Success-Spectacular Race From Start to Finish-Charnetski Came in Second and McArthur Third.

McArthur Third.

John D. Nolan, Jr., son of the famous John D., captured The Bulletin cup in the five mile Y. M. C. A. Marathon race Monday morning after a grueling and sensational race in which the winner was not determined until a very short distance from the finish, as the runners were well makehed. Alex Charnetski came in a close second, almost directly behind Nolan, and he most directly behind Nolan, and he was followed by George McArthur and C. A. Perkins, who put up a great fight for third honors, but with a burst of Speed McArthur hit the tape chead of Perkins.

Charnetski was all in as he finished collapsing as he fell over the line and was caught in the arms of those waiting there.

At this point Charnetski had the lead by a few feet, but Nolan a breadth behind pushed blim

It looked as if the runners would string out, but instead of that they fought it out with each other, first one taking the lead, then the other. The runners in the rear were very well strung out and were plugging on, put-ting in their best efforts to catch up with the top notchers.

A hig surprise happened at Backus hospital when Perkins, Charnetski and Randall crept up on to Noian, who had a lead of a few feet, and the four
